

CHURCH OF THE HOLY GHOST

Youth Convention

MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHBISHOP

With amazing love and best wishes, I send you my greetings at the start of this year's Convention.

I am filled with deep awe as I imagine the spirit and power of worship today, which characterizes the youth of our country and our vibrant regions in the Church.

Although I regret the reality that I could not join you in person, nor be able to connect remotely to share this moment with you, I want you to know how hard I am praying for you, and for those back at home, who could not make it to this Convention.

This time is about affirming our position as a youth that is different from the rest. Our standards are different, our heritage is different, and our destiny is certainly different – from the common man. We speak the same language as others, yet with a higher meaning. We pursue similar ambitions and professions as our peers, yet with a higher purpose. And we hope for the same things, aspiring for the good life and to be surrounded by comfort – yet not for the same reason as everyone else does, but for a much higher motive.

We live to deliver nothing but Praise to the only creative author of our life, the only God we know.

And so whilst I am unable to live this experience with you this year, I am more than convinced that we are in the same location spiritually – separated only by perception. I see you in your magnificent joy and excitement in the presence of our Father, clothed in the brightest attire spiritually which makes you shine amongst the stars.

As you gather, my goal is that you may be encouraged as you continue to live out God's plan for your life. I wish for your heart to hold on to the Truth, and not be swayed by the blowing wind of world philosophies – that is full of arguments against the hope which we have come to know through Christ.

Furthermore, my ambition is that you may be completely united in love as the youth of the Church of the Holy Ghost, knowing that the bond that brings you together is much stronger than the flaws that separate you. I press on this so that you may remember that only as One Church will we confront what lies ahead of us. In honour of the patron of this Youth Convention, my grandfather – the greatest prophet of our time; who believed in us young people and the power we have to transform this Church into a dynamic movement which it is today, let us all commit to the search for the hidden treasure in Christ. Let us thirst for and find true wisdom and knowledge in God, by not only staging this wonderful Convention, but by also taking the flame into our homes and our personal lives, allowing it to completely transform us so that those who are yet to believe may point out the power of God that is at work in us.

THROUGH THIS SCRIPTURE, I SEND ALL MY BLESSINGS TO YOU AND YOUR LEADERSHIP THIS WEEKEND.

"He will be the sure foundation for your times, a rich store of salvation and wisdom and knowledge; the fear of the Lord is the key to this treasure." Isaiah 33:6

"I Need You To Survive"

I need you, you need me
We're all a part of God's body.
Stand with me, agree with me
We're all a part of God's body.

It is His will that every need be supplied
You are important to me, I need you to survive
You are important to me, I need you to survive.

(Repeat x3)

I'll pray for you, you pray for me
I love you, I need you to survive.
I won't harm you, with words from my mouth
I love you, I need you to survive.

(Repeat x8)

It is His will that every need be supplied
You are important to me, I need you to survive.
